

What possible reason, other than just doing the bidding of the NAB, could you have for stopping satellite radio from offering local coverage?
Thank God we had a decent Federal government in the 40s, or the NAB would have squashed television, too.